Greetings!

As you might know, we moved into our newly renovated facilities last year; since then, we have been working diligently to get M.A.R.I. back up and running. So, before the 2011-12 academic year begins, we wanted to update you on what we have been working on during these past months:

- M.A.R.I. is now on Facebook! If you are a Facebook member, look us up and see some of the other news items and updates, pictures, and interesting tidbits going on at MARI. Please press LIKE when you do visit us there!
- Now that M.A.R.I. has moved back into its home in Dinwiddie Hall, our publications are again available for sale. Please refer to our current publication list for latest prices and availability and use our on-line form to help make the ordering process easier than before. Visit: <http://mari.tulane.edu/publications.html> for more information.
- Stay tuned for more news about the 9th Annual Tulane Maya Symposium coming up in late February of 2012. This year's symposium is titled "In the Time of the Maya." We will focus on the millennia long history of Maya civilization starting at the time of Creation and lasting to 2012 and beyond. Visit our TMS webpage (<http://mari.tulane.edu/TMS/>) in the next couple of weeks for more information.
